

Dear Mrs. Lanzi,

Yesterday I spent 3½ hours at the Dutch Reformed Archives, searching the thick volume G9 3/I GEORGE BAPTISMS for I813-27 - and came up with about 10 MARNEWECKS. In the beginning the name was spelled MANEWEEK or MANNEWECK. Later they inserted the "r" and/or the "c" as an extra. But it is all definitely your family, as you will see by the Christian names. It is an extremely thick volume, and I had to go through literally thousands of names in order to come up with these few of yours. I did find several COETZEES, which I noted down in the process - if you want them ?? I don't think Mr. Coetzee himself wants them really, as he has one particular connection which I am finding it difficult to discover. Very illusive !
